

Nova Scotia Criminal Justice Association

Promoting a humane, equitable and effective criminal justice system

The Nova Scotia Criminal Justice Association is a non-governmental provincial association comprised of citizens interested in achieving the objectives of the Association, which are to:

- Encourage cooperation among individuals and groups in Nova Scotia interested in resolving problems that derive from criminal and delinquent behaviour;
- Promote awareness and understanding of current issues in Canadian criminal justice, including legislation, criminal justice services, public education, rehabilitation and victim resources;
- Foster and promote improved criminal justice programs, policies and legislation; and
- Acquire and disseminate information and knowledge about all aspects of criminal justice.
